

Pittsburgh Center for the Arts SHOP ARTIST SUBMISSION APPLICATION

The Shop at the Pittsburgh Center for the Arts is now accepting digital submissions on an on-going basis. PCA Shop staff will not review artwork on a walk-in basis. Artists living or working within a 150-mile radius of the Center are invited to submit an application for consideration. We appreciate your interest in submitting your artwork to the Shop at PCA!

About:

Pittsburgh Filmmakers/Pittsburgh Center for the Arts is committed to the artist and the advancement of artistic excellence in visual arts.

Pittsburgh Center for the Arts

Founded in 1945, Pittsburgh Center for the Arts is a non-profit community arts campus that offers arts education programs and contemporary art exhibitions, providing services and resources for individual artists throughout Western Pennsylvania. The Center is where the community can create, see, support, and learn about visual arts. In January 2006, Pittsburgh Center for the Arts merged with Pittsburgh Filmmakers.

Pittsburgh Filmmakers

Founded in 1971, Pittsburgh Filmmakers is a nonprofit corporation designed to encourage the creation and understanding of media for noncommercial artistic and literary purposes. To this end, Filmmakers offers a curriculum of courses in film, video, and photography to university and independent students in the Pittsburgh region.

The Shop at Pittsburgh Center for the Arts works on a 50/50 split consignment basis.

Criteria for Selection

- Quality of work; particularly in the execution of details and finish.
- Marketability, pricing and diversity from existing inventory
- Creative and innovative design
- Although we have no size limit, work must fit within the scale of the shop.

Additional work or an appointment may be requested for review.

Please note that not all submissions will receive a response.
If selected, you will be contacted within 3 weeks.
